

1023 South U.S. 27 • St. Johns • MI • 48879
Phone: 800.274.7426
Fax: 989.224.0330
TTY: 989.224.0346
E-mail: matr@edzone.net
Web site: <http://www.cenmi.org/matr>

AAC and Related Websites

Compiled by Alison Walczak, M.A., CCC-SLP, Assistive Technology Consultant and Kristine Sand, M.A., CCC-SLP, Assistive Technology Consultant

A listing of selected web sites for augmentative and alternative communication information.

<http://www.aacintervention.com> Gives latest AAC Tip of the Month.

<http://aac.unl.edu/yaack> AAC Connecting Young Kids (YAACK home page).

<http://www.closingthegap.com> Information on all assistive technology including AAC.

<http://www.lsac-online.org> International Society for Augmentative and Alternative Communication (ISAAC)

Information on AAC manufacturers.

<http://www.aacproducts.org/> Communication Aid Manufacturers Association (CAMA).

Newsletters.

<http://www.augcominc.com/articles.html> Links to Augmentative Communication News and Alternatively Speaking

<http://www.ablenetinc.com/Power%20of%20Vision.htm> The Power of Vision is an email bulletin with information about providing meaningful learning opportunities for students with significant disabilities.

http://www.temple.edu/inst\_disabilities/ACOLUG/tacolug.html ACOLUG is a listserv created to exchange ideas, information and experiences on augmentative communication by people from all over the world.

http://www.creativecommunicating.com/topic\_setters.html The Topic Setter is a free quarterly newsletter published by Creative Communicating addressing issues related to emergent literacy.

<http://www.aac-rerc.com/> The Rehabilitation Engineering Research Center on Communication Enhancement - provides information on research activities, news and highlights and AAC links.

<http://www.lburkhart.com> Using technology as a tool for education and communication.

<http://www.creative-comm.com> A company that creates materials for children with disabilities and educational resources for parents and service providers.

<http://www.vantatenhove.com> Core vocabulary lists, AAC users contact information.

<http://www.dotolearn.com> Information on visual language supports, includes free printable picture symbols.

<http://news-2-you.com> Weekly newspaper of AAC users, requires subscription.

<http://www.qiat.org> Excellent site on Quality Indicators for A.T.

<http://www.joyzabala.com> Information regarding the SETT framework.

<http://aac.unl.edu> AAC links, AAC vendor links, academic resources and more.

<http://www.aacinstitute.org/> A not-for-profit 501c3 charitable organization dedicated to effective communication for people who rely on AAC

Michigan's Assistive Technology Resource is an IDEA Mandated Activity Project offered through the Michigan Department of Education Office of Special Education and Early Intervention Services

STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW

The Michigan Department of Education complies with all Federal laws and regulations prohibiting discrimination, and with all requirements of the U.S. Department of Education.